TIMELESS ALLURE

A synthesis of formal rigor and material refinement, the new Plissé collection of washstand-storage totems by Artelinea links back to the past, taking inspiration from the delicate folds of the apparel of the ancient Egyptians and Greek statues, also with a nod to the forms of the 1950s. The result is a line of timeless allure.

Balanced between vintage style and contemporary design, the Plissé freestanding washstands created by the studio Bizzarri Design are entirely in glass. The sophisticated vertical stripes that coat the storage volume of the totem give the structure a slim look, while the metal details and the glow of the glass enhance its presence. The three-dimensional character of the slender pleats and the effects of luminosity give the collection a light, balanced dynamism. The Plissé totems are available in various versions: the cast washstands can be square or rectangular, while the black, bronze or absolute white tones further embellish the lines. C.F.
